DENVER, May 28.-Though they lie in an Idaho prison waiting trial for alleged complicity in the assassination of ex-Governor Steunenberg, Charles H. Thus will the federation show its confidence in the innocence of the officials. No other candidates for these offices have been mentioned, and the election of Moyer and Haywood is expected to be made unanimous.

In many respects this is the most important convention of the federation since it was organized at Butte, Mont., thirteen years ago.

In his address to the delegates, Acting President Williams referred to the incarceration of Moyer, Haywood and Pettibone, and, holding a button such as is worn by each of the delegates, he written by Canfield in which he said read therefrom: "Their only crims is the "seneator must pay in full." loyalty to the working class."
